

Nominating Committee Offers Slate of Candidates

The Leeway Overlee Nominating Committee, led by Amy Appelbaum and Chips Johnson, has developed a slate of candidates to serve as officers of the civic association for the next year (June 2006 – May 2007). The new officers will be elected during the June 6 meeting. The slate proposed by the Nominating Committee is:

President – Suzanne Idziak (N. 19th Street)
Vice President – Jennifer Michener (N. Illinois Street)
Secretary – Ladd Connell (N. 22nd Street)
Treasurer – Carolyn Connell (N. 22nd Street)

Other nominations can also be made from the floor at the meeting.

The community will also select its delegates and alternates to the Arlington County Civic Federation and its representatives to the Neighborhood Conservation Advisory Committee for the Leeway neighborhood conservation area. Several people currently serving would like to continue. But there are always some vacancies. If interested in a particular position, contact a member of the Nominating Committee or come to the meeting and volunteer.

Issues Raised Concerning Lee Highway Service Station

Civic association officers and residents from N. Illinois Street met with the current operators of the Pure gas station on Illinois and Lee Highway in late April. County zoning enforcement personnel were present also.

The civic association had raised questions regarding some of the business activities that have taken place on that lot in years past. Neighbors close to the station were also concerned about what use would be made of the narrow strip of noncommercial property that separates the station from the single-family neighborhood.

The current station operator noted that he was not responsible for the cutting down of the many trees and other vegetation on the strip over a year ago. That removal of the green screening by the owner was seen by many as a snub to the neighborhood. Neighbors had opposed a development plan to have part of the site rezoned so a small apartment building could be built behind the station.

The new station operator has expressed an interest in replanting the strip if a formal agreement can be negotiated with the community. He has promised to prohibit any secondary commercial activities at the station that do not meet County zoning rules.

Annual Community Day, Yard Sale is June 3

Last year's yard sale drew large crowds. Join us for the event on June 3. Rain date is June 10. If you will be a new seller, call 703-532-6101 for details.

supplemental funding for this branch library is proposed for the November bond package. Likewise, needed landscaping and parking improvements for the Lee Center have been fully designed but cannot be placed under contract until more bond funds are approved by Arlington's voters.

The Manager's proposal—if approved by the County Board in June—will defer the funding of new capital projects for two years. The bond issue will also provide funds to complete neighborhood conservation projects that have already received initial County funding. There will be no funds for new commitments in the areas of neighborhood conservation, neighborhood traffic calming, commercial area revitalization, North Tract recreational development, and community art. The hope is that in two years the list of approved but unbuilt projects will be substantially reduced, thus allowing the County to begin making new project commitments in 2008.

Community Notes

Stop for School Bus Loading or Unloading

Arlington police have cited several drivers in the neighborhood who failed to stop when approaching school buses which were discharging or loading students. The students' parents were unsuccessful in convincing some drivers to adhere to the state law. Thus the police were called in. State law requires vehicles to stop in all directions when a school bus is stopped to load or unload pupils. The penalties for a violation in Virginia are high. They reportedly include a fine up to $2500, up to a year in jail, possible suspension of driving privileges, and six points on the driving record. Please protect the neighborhood's school children!

Protect our Trees in the Summer Heat

Hot summer weather will soon be upon us. If you have trees in your yard or on public property nearby, remember to provide lots of water to them in the event of a summer drought. Trees planted within the past two years are particularly susceptible to drought. But even well established trees can succumb to a long lack of water. Large shade trees are the neighborhood's primary line of defense against summer heat and high air conditioning bills. It takes 30 years or more to grow a healthy tree that gives canopy shade. Do your part to protect these living community assets!

Westover Library/Reed School Project Update

By the end of May the School Board and County Board are expected to formally agree to combine the future new Westover library and Reed School buildings into a single project led by Arlington Public Schools. The present stakeholder Building Level Planning Committee will be expanded to reflect the broader project. The timeline for design completion and construction is still being set. Extensive information and opportunity to comment on the projects is available at the following websites: <http://www.arlingtonva.us/departments/Libraries/forums/westover/LibrariesForumsWestoverWestoverReedMain.aspx> and <http://www.arlington.k12.va.us/facilities/design/reed.shtml>

Eighteen Families Receive Free Trees

Arlington has in recent weeks distributed to County residents native trees for planting on private property. Tree recipients were solicited through civic associations. Leeway Overlee publicized this tree offer through a message on its listserv. Eighteen people responded. If you are not currently subscribed to the listserv, subscribe to avoid missing future offers and late-breaking community news. See instructions in box below.
